DREAM DUPLEX

Dream Duplex is a speculation in immersive theatre. Part installation, part performance, it charts the ways dreams have come to encrust the deeper strata of cultural life in the English language. Composed of a series of vignettes spanning the English literary canon from Shakespeare to Coetzee, evoking in passing the dreams and reflections of Wordsworth, Coleridge, Shelley, Byron, Keats, Emily Dickinson, Philip Larkin, Doris Lessing and Carl Gustav Jung, Dream Duplex seeks to evoke the perceptual disturbances animating our nocturnal lives. Scenographically, pairs of actors will be sharing speeches, their actions commingling while graphic animations deigned by Lucas Oettli will at times enhance a thought or provide a background to the unfolding of the various dream narratives.

*... dreams in their development have breath,
And tears, and tortures and the touch of joy...*
